

Reggie Jackson
Senior Vice President of Strategic Business Relationships

Reggie Jackson is Senior Vice President of Strategic Business Relationships for The Original SoupMan. Mr. Jackson is also Chairman of Al's Feed the Hungry Foundation, the non-profit organization launched by The Original SoupMan in 2005 that donates funds to local hunger charities each time a new franchise location opens.

Reggie Jackson is also an investor in The Original SoupMan. Jackson, nicknamed "Mr. October" for his clutch hitting in the postseason, is a former Major League Baseball right fielder who played for five different teams from 1967 to 1987. He won three consecutive World Series titles as a member of the Oakland A's in the early 1970s and also won 2 consecutive titles with the New York Yankees. He was inducted into the Hall of Fame in 1993.